

Lighthouse Quilters Guild

Betty's Bits 'n Pieces

I went to the National Quilting Association annual show in Columbus, OH in June with my husband and we enjoyed the show very much. The quality of the quilts was excellent. There were five quilts judged for Master Quilter and two of them achieved the award. All five quilts were on exhibit for the first time. To look at them one would wonder why all of them weren't selected. Margaret Docherty from United Kingdom and Shirley Kelly from NY are the new Master Quilters. This now makes it an international award and in 25 years there are 19 members.

We met our Japanese friends in Columbus and they took us to a Japanese village for lunch. We ate with chopsticks in a Japanese restaurant. I wanted to make sure the food I ordered was cooked. It was quite good. Noriko ordered sushi and offered to share it with us but we both declined. It was interesting to see how the different foods were served. We went into a Japanese grocery store before we left. There were large fish heads packaged in the meat market. I asked her what they did with a fish head. She said they cook them on the grill. I sure am glad I missed that meal!

July Meeting Silent Auction Guidelines

Here are the guidelines for participating in the Silent Auction:

1. Each item or set of items will have a bid sheet in front of it. The bid sheet will describe the item, its approximate value and if it has a pattern included (esp if it's a UFO).
2. You are to put your name, phone number and bid amount on the sheet.
3. All bids will be in increments of $.10, $.25, or $.50, which will be noted on the bid sheet. (For example, if the last bid is for $2.50 for an item that has a $.50 bid increment, you'd be able to bid $3, $3.50, $4 etc. as the next bid).
4. We will have 3 bidding sessions. This means all items will be open for the auction at the beginning of the meeting. But they close in three different sessions. The sessions are as follows: Section 1 will close at 7:30. Session 2 will close at 8:00. Session 3 will close at 8:30.
5. You will be free to examine the items, but we ask that you put them back into their bags/boxes.
6. So that we do not disturb the meeting, winners will not be announced. Each person bidding will be asked to check with the Reconciliation Team which will have a table in the room to see if they won their auction item.
7. We ask that you reconcile your balance that evening, before the meeting ends. Cash and checks. The Reconciliation Team will take your name and tally any amounts you owe.

Membership News

We had 87 members present at our June meeting. This included 3 new members! Our membership is at 154 and I've been told that this is a record. Door prizes were won by Sue Scheckel, Maria Rivest and Sharon Best.

Welcome New Members: Debby Gillmore, Laura Kirchoff and Jacky Tomkins. Try to meet the new members and welcome them to our guild!

Somebody's Moving: Please make a note of the new address and telephone number for Clarice Sklba. 1136 Valley View Drive, Racine, WI 53405 Telephone: 262-637-4099

Guest Information:

We have had questions regarding the number of meetings that a person could attend as a guest. While there isn't a specific rule for this we feel that an individual could attend two meetings to get a feel for our group and that joining would be appropriate if they wished to attend a third meeting. The $5.00 fee would not apply unless the meeting had a special speaker where all guests were being charged the guest fee.
